PREFACE

The results of the 2010 Population Census have been published in the reports consisting of seven volumes. Besides these reports, “Results of Preliminary Sample Tabulation”, “OVERVIEW OF POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLDS OF JAPAN” and “Population Map Series” have been published. This final report “Population and Household of Japan” consists of two volumes : “Summary Report of the 2010 Population Census” including descriptive analyses of the census results and related documents, and “Statistical Tables of the 2010 Population Census” presenting the main statistical tables selected from the regular reports above and some results of earlier censuses linked to 2010 definition.

The Population Census in Japan has been conducted almost every five years since 1920, the 2010 Population Census being the nineteenth. The statistics obtained through the population census provide the state of Japan’s population to be used for a variety of administrative and analytical purposes.

These statistics are expected to be utilized in many fields of policy making including social welfare, employment, prevention of disasters, etc., which are essential factors for the prosperous society in the 21st century.

On this occasion, I wish to express my deep appreciation to all of those who cooperated in the census-taking.
