Introduction of Project on Improving Official Statistics in Cambodia

Chief Adviser of the Project
Statistical Research and Training Institute, Japan

Statistical Training Class in Japan

Statistical Training Class in NIS by the Project

Statistical Research and Training Institute, Japan

Training Center of Statistics Indonesia (BPS)

1. Implementing Organization of the Project

National Institute of Statistics (NIS), Ministry of Planning, Cambodia

Cooperated by Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

Supported by Statistics Bureau of Japan

2. Project Period

August 2005 – August 2007   (two years)

3. Target Group

Cambodian Statistical Officers of
- NIS
- Department of Planning in provinces
- District offices
- Line ministries

4. Project Purpose

To improve the statistical capacity of the above officers .

5. Project Activities

5-1. Statistical Training in Cambodia

5-2. Dispatch of Japanese lecturers to Cambodia

5-3. Statistical Training in Japan

5-4. Provision of Equipment

5-1. Statistical Training in Cambodia

Conduct 6-month training 4 times in 2 years.

6-month training consists of 3 courses:
- Elementary Course (15 subjects)
- Intermediate Course (27 subjects)
- Advanced Course (6 subjects)

Basic statistics, survey design, data processing, statistical analysis, dessemination, mathematics, how to use personal computer, etc.

5-2. Dispatch of Japanese lecturers to Cambodia

Lecturers are basically dispatched from Japan.

Lecturers consists of university professors, the former Director-General of Statistics Bureau of Japan, etc.

All lectures are delivered in English through Khmer interpreters.

5-3. Statistical Training in Japan

Dispatch some NIS officers to Japan and provide statistical trainings for them, who will be able to lead the project.

5-4. Provision of Equipment

Provide necessary personal computers and equipment to conduct effective trainings.

Improved a training room in NIS for maximum 40 trainees with a personal computer for each trainee.

http://www.stat.go.jp/english/info/meetings/cambodia/nittei.htm

END